Harlem's Fight for Political Independence

By BENJAMIN J. DAVIS

REP. ADAM POWELL'S crushing defeat of Councilman Earl Brown in the Harlem Democratic primary was a great victory of the Negro people for their own political movement and independence. It was a tremendous display of the fighting mood of the Negro people, not alone in Harlem but all over the country. At the same time, it showed that, in all things having to do with their struggle for human dignity and for civil rights, the Negro people are moving to the left. The significance of this victory is international as well as national. Especially does it give a lift to the Negro people in the deep South.

SINCE POWELL'S labor record has been as outstanding as that of any other Congressman since Marcantonio, the AFL-CIO has cause to rejoice, although the top national and state officialdom of organized labor failed miserably to aggressively champion Powell and the militant Negro peoples movement which he represented in the primary election. The Liberal Party leadership — Dubinsky, Rose, Crosswaith, et al — disgracefully plumped for the Tammany machine, supporting Brown against Powell. But it is well known that there were spontaneous write-in votes for Powell in the primary, showing that countless Negro workers of the HGWU and in the Liberal Party rebuffed their leaders.

TOO MUCH CREDIT cannot be given to the Negro workers in the various trade unions, who constituted the main base of the Powell victory, to the Negro women and youth in the churches and other Negro peoples organizations, as well as to an effective though limited section of the white trade unionists in several locals who advanced the cause of Negro-white unity, and the Negro-labor alliance by their aggressive support of Powell and the Negro peoples struggle for political freedom.

The Powell victory was a victory for the whole Negro liberation movement. The Negro people of Harlem in the first place, deserve the heartiest congretulations.

The decisive struggle was in the Democratic primary. But several weeks prior to the August primaries, the Negro leaders of the Republican party in Harlem defied the Tom Dewey-Herald Tribune-Rockefeller bosses of their party to award the Republican designation to Powell. Thus the Negro people in Harlem expressed their independent political action by taking over both major party machines in 16th Congressional district.

IN ADDITION, the Powell victory was a terrific blow to red-baiting introduced by Brown at the behest of the Tammany bosses (to which Powell yielded in some measure) and to the whole rotten system of legal frame-ups which the ruling class uses to pick-off militant Negro spokesmen one by one and to intimidate the militancy and unity of the Negro.

Aware, in some measure, of the legal persecution of Robeson, DuBois, Patterson, Jackson, of Henry Winston's imprisonment under the Smith Act—and of the countless frame-ups of Martin Luther King and other Negro leaders in the deep South—the Negro people in Harlem hurled their defiance and contempt for the trumped up tax indictment against Powell.

JOB DISCRIMINATION, jim-crow in housing, the failure to desegregate the New York and southern schools,—all of these popular issues and more merged into one central issue: the right of the Negro people to choose their own representatives free from the dictates of the major party machine bosses. While Brown had a passable record in the City Council, he made the fatal mistake of placing the interests of the Tammany machine above the vital interest and political independence of the Negro people, the quintessence of modern political Uncle Tomism.

On the other hand the Negro people, with Powell as their symbol, decided that the only way to get rid of the urban jim crow system in New York and achieve their full dignity and equality is through struggle, fight and political independence rather than through candidates who do the bidding of the political machines.

IN THIS the Negro people raised their political unity to a higher level. It was no longer an exclusive question of Negro representation which is a vital, urgent question in New York and in other Northern and Western urban centers—not to mention the deep south. The new level of this unity was what kind of Negro representation: that of the bosses, or that of the militant Negro upsurge in the country?

Harlem replied by shellacking one of the most powerful and corrupt major party machines in the country, by repudiating political Uncle Tomism, and by demonstrating the need of a new political realignment in this country, of which the Negro people will be a decisive section.

THE LESSONS of the Harlem primary contest will not be lost on those who sit in the seats of power in the United States. If the traitorous Faubus, and his Eastland-coherts hoped that the recent Arkansas gubernatorial election would help to sustain the Ku Klux Lemley decision, one can be sure that the Powell victory on Aug. 12, had special significance to the St. Louis Circuit Court of Appeals which reversed that decision.

Nor can any informed person overlook the united front between the socialist countries, led by the Soviet Union and China and the colonial liberation movements of the colored peoples now engaged in struggle against American and British imperialism in the Near East—to say nothing of the fact that 11 Asian and African countries are asking the General Assembly of the UN to take a stand against the barbarous system of Apartheidsegregation against the black people of South Africa.

AS OF THE MOMENT, the crucial questions are how can the Negro people realize the full fruits of this magnificent victory and how can this victory be guarded, consolidated and extended even in the course of this unfinished election campaign. It would be a crying shame to permit it to be frittered away, before any substantial gains are achieved for the community.

Although the possibility of obtaining real progress for the community and of advancing the political equality of the Negro is much greater, each of these things have to be fought for. And the more the Negro people register and extend their political independence the better are the prospects of success.

Rep. Powell has already called a replacement of the Tammany hacks in Harlem with leaders of the Democratic Party who are devoted to the interest of the Negro people rather than to the party machine and bosses. The mandate of Harlem on Aug. 12, was that where old leaders do not change their ways and bring themselves in line with the political independence of the community, new ones will take their places. The two major parties in Harlem are in the dock.

FURTHERMORE, in the 1956 gubernatorial elections when Harriman won by 11,000 votes the Negro people of Harlem wielded the balance of power—and might conceivably do so in any close Mayoralty election.

It is high time that an end should be put to the lily-white practice of the Democratic and Republican parties in this state, a practice which has denied to the Negro people any representation for state-wide office. Moreover, New York should be the first state to send a Negro to the United States Senate—the first since Mississippi sent Hiram Revels and Blanche Bruce during Reconstruction!

There are many Negroes who are known for their stand for civil rights—among them Thurgood Marshall, Judge Hubert Delany, Ralph Bunche—who could not but raise the predominantly low level of the U.S. Senate. These demands are on the immediate order of the day, in the first place, on the Democratic Party.

THE BURNING needs of the Negro people, as well as of the Porto Rican people—the latter having contributed substantially to the anti-Tammany primary victory in the 16th C. D.—need to be placed with a fresh sharp initiative to Mayor Wagner and the other occupants of City Hall.

The deplorable housing conditions in Harlem, the disgraceful failure to integrate the New York schools, the job discrimination, the lousy bus and subway schedules, the exorbitant food prices, the general second class conditions imposed upon the Harlem community — all these should be placed squarely before the Wagner Administration which holds office in part, because of the Democratic majority Party in Harlem. The justice of these demands of the Negro people—a hundred-fold intensified by the economic crisis—can now be backed up with the strength of the Negro's political independence in a major election year!

THE POWELL primary victory gave such a stunning jolt to De Sapio and to Paul Butler of the national Democratic high command that it was felt in Arkansas, Mississippi and Alabama—and undoubtedly threw the fear of the Almighty into Republican bosses as well. For the Negro people demonstrated in Harlem that they're in the vest pocket of neither major party machine, while, at the same time, they will convert both to their own purposes. But as long as they can contain the Negro people within these parties, these white supremacy bosses feel that they can cajole, bribe or bamboozle them back into the old machine routine. That's why they got rid of proportional representation in New York City, which [illegible]

[redacted] Council, and that's why proportional representation must be brought back.

In its absence, the only way the united Negro peoples movement can register its political independence outside the two major parties is through the Ben Davis campaign in the 21st State Senatorial district (on which this writer is running on the Peoples Right Party ticket). This district which comprises the 11th, 13th and 7th A. D.'s covers a part of the heart of Negro Harlem, and a good section of the Porto Rican people, among other workers.

An overwhelming vote for the Davis candidacy in the 21st, would serve as a powerful lever for the burning economic and social needs of the people of Harlem, would register the protest of the community against both major parties, and would serve as a channel through which the most conscious fighters for independent political action could lay the basis for a new Party of the Negro, labor, the farmers and other anti-monopoly sections of the population. The writers candidacy which embraces much of the same area of the 16th Congressional District — especially the 11th A. D. — complements and extends the independent character of the Powell victory, the latter being officially nailed down on Nov. 4.

THE RESPONSE to our candidacy in Harlem has been enthusiastic and inspiring, indicating the strong moods of political independence among the Negro people, and reflecting a growing disillusionment with the two major parties as political forms of struggle for the militant Negro peoples upsurge, here and nationally. The people of Harlem havent forgotten the records of Gaccione and Davis. If our campaign had the requisite forces, the sky would be the limit on the number of signatures that could be collected for the nominating petitions.

However, a minimum of [redacted] signatures are required (3000 officially), and only [redacted] odd have been collected, through to finish [redacted] the community. The signature campaign is in grave danger and [redacted] a further extension of [redacted] Negro people political [redacted]

[redacted] major party politicos conspired to dump Powell with the Eisenhower administration trying to put him in jail, the Communist Party boldly pointed out the massive significance of the primary elections and called upon the Negro people, together with all their trade union and progressive allies, to smash the plot, and turn it into a resounding victory. The contributions of the Harlem Communists in the primary campaign were outstanding. Operating on a broad coalition policy, Communists worked as a part of the people's political revolt, centering around the Democratic primary struggle, and at the same time brought forward the Party's own more advanced position on the issues of peace, Bandung, the withdrawal of troops from Lebanon and Jordan, the South, the role of the world socialist camp, the Negro-labor alliance and the unique ripeness of America for socialism.

IT IS a dangerously mistaken and superficial view that this is merely another important, though routine, campaign to get a formal vote for a Communist, as important as that vote is. What is being worked out here in the role of the Party, is the relationship of the Communists, representing the advanced and conscious forces of this broad movement, to the Negro liberation movement nationally and as a whole. The urgent necessities of this relationship are both immediate and of a long-range character.

Under new conditions and relationships, the Communist Party has to become the "Party of the Negro people" by its self-sacrificing fight for the vital interests of the Negro people, and by the depth and clarity of its policies leading to the smashing of the whole jim-crow system. While this approach must find the fullest possible expression in the election campaign, it goes beyond. No sacrifice is too great for a Communist to make to assist the Negro people in Harlem in guaranteeing Davis' candidacy in the 21st Senatorial District and in supporting the historic progress of the Negro people toward their full political [redacted] position.

Leader to Fight Bid by Powell

Elijah L. Crump, Democratic leader of the 12th Assembly District in Harlem, announced last night that he would run for re-election next year against Rep. Adam Clayton Powell.

He said Mr. Powell changed his voting residence to the 12th District from the neighboring 13th District in order to challenge him for the post of district leader ini the 1958 primary election. Mr. Crump has been district leader since 1955 and is a former assemblyman from the district.
